All the back issues of Nash's Numbers can be found on the www.nashsnumbers.co.uk website, however, the 70+ page UID and "Whats On" lists are now on the www.myfav.co.uk website. The MyFav website is a general and very useful launch pad to the rest of the internet that you may want as your 'Home Page' (click 'Help' and see the videos about this new site). But the UID and 'What's On' are on a 'locked page'. To unlock the page - 1) go to www.myfav.co.uk (you will notice a padlock symbol, below the analogue clock).

2) Click 'Register', fill out the details, but you must enter the word taxi in the 'unlock code' box then click 'Submit'. You will be sent a temporary password, . This is automatic and you should receive it within seconds.

3) Log in with your email address and password. You will notice that the padlock symbol has been replaced with the word TAXI, click this button and the taxi page of icons will appear. This may seem complicated but if you now click on 'Make Home page', every time you launch your internet this page will appear. Please use the 'Contact' button to make any suggestions for additional icon launch buttons you would like to improve this site. *** PRIZES *** The MyFav website is being promoted by recommendation. A £100 Amazon gift voucher is available every month just for recommending the site. Click the 'Prizes' button on the www.myfav.co.uk website for more information.
